Projects

TELESEICT: Teaching and Learning in Special Education with Information Communication Technologies (2016-1-PT01-KA203-022950), Country coordinator. The main purpose this project is to raise the awareness in teacher training of the use of ICT - digital competences, when creating good learning environments for pupils in need of special support. Hence, the project will highlight the use of ICT with people with different disabilities in special educational contexts and settings, and thus allow access to ICT for almost everyone. The combination of knowledge from the 11 partners will give the necessary European dimension to the project because everyone will contribute with their experience in one specific area: Intellectual disability, Physical disability, hearing loss and deafness, vision loss and blindness, accessibility.

RESTART - Reinventing European Solidarity And Raising Tolerance (Europe for Citizens, ref. 576885), National expert. The project aims at raising awareness on the refugee crisis that Europe has been facing over the last two years. In the light of the threat to the Schengen Agreement and the rise of euroscepticism across Europe and especially to countries affected the most from the ongoing crisis, we aim at educating both the European citizens and the refugees and create bridges of communication between these two different target groups.

Youth Mobile Academy on Human Rights (S-AL-600-15-GR-125), Coordinator. Youth Mobile Academy on Human Right is a project implemented by Albanian Institute for Public Affairs in collaboration with the U.S. Embassy in Tirana. This initiative has been conceived and designed as a joint project of AIPA and High Schools in Albania for continuous education training and activism on Human Rights issues. YMA-HR initiative will enhance education of youth on Human Rights issue and encourage them to actively participate in community.

Mobile Academy, Coordinator. Mobile Academy is a project implemented, in seven different albanian universities, by Jean Monnet Chair at Marin Barleti University, in collaboration with the Embassy of Kingdom of Netherlands, focused on seven topics: Interreligious dialogue; Minorities Rights; Roma inclusion; EU integration;

LGBT rights; Woman in Politics; Gender equality.

Educating young generation with peace culture against any kind of violence and discrimination between women and men, girls and boys, Human Rights Expert. This project, supported by UNDP Albania, aims to awareness youth people against gender violence. Students of High School awareness and a group of activists, boys and girls, created for working together against domestic violence for a better peaceful life in the family and community.
